The Case for Copper

Producers significantly undervalued

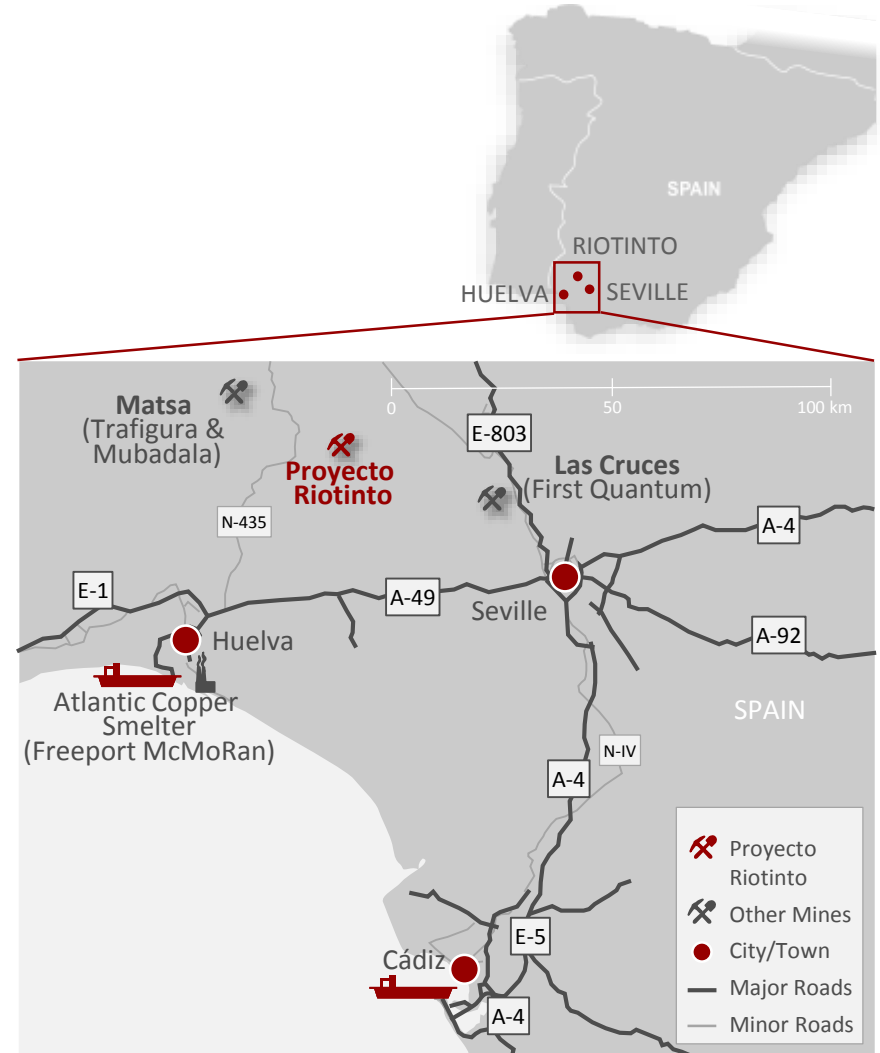

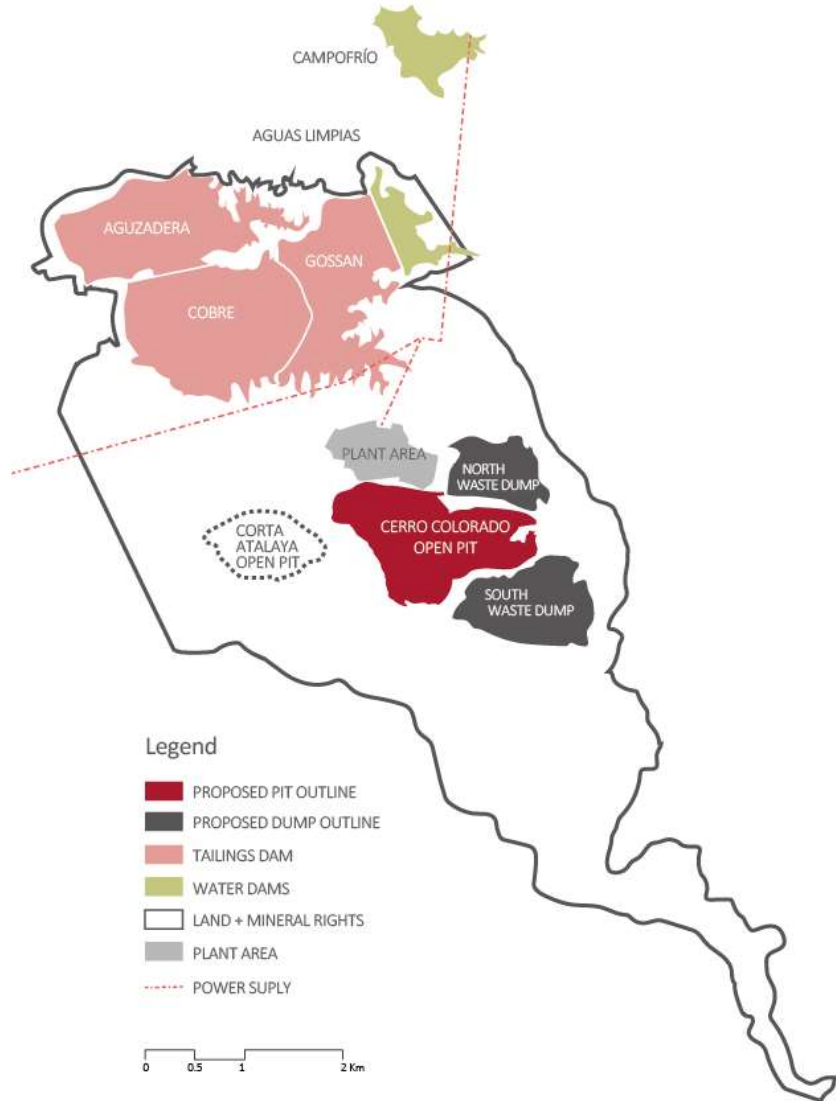

- Recent copper asset acquisitions
 - ✓ Tenke, Zaldivar, Kevitsa well above the spot price - in some cases >50%
- Copper producers appear significantly undervalued
 - ✓ EVs not aligned with transaction prices for asset sales - this disconnect not sustainable
- Supply/Demand balance
 - ✓ Short term negligible
 - ✓ Medium and longer term more robust

Plan view

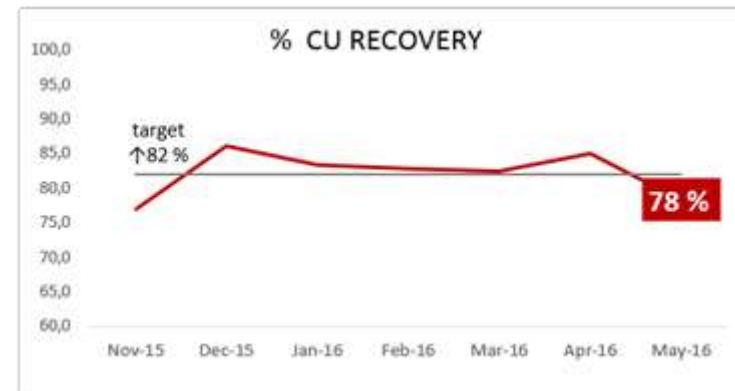

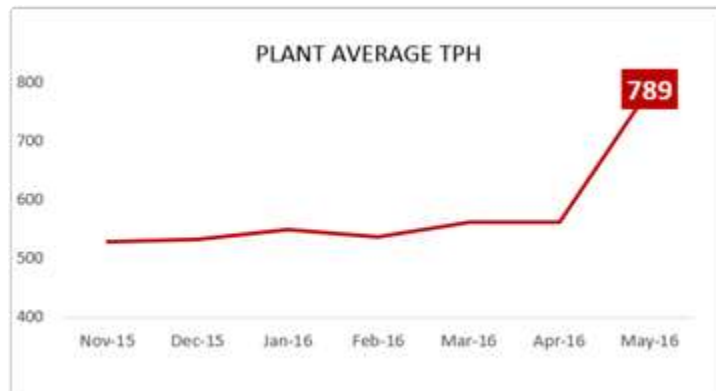

Ramp-up results

Commercial production declared from 1 February 2016

- Ramp-up of Expansion well ahead of previous estimate of December 2016
- Anticipate operating at nameplate capacity (9.5Mtpa) from end Q3 2016
- Working towards improving historic plant performance
- Implementation of new technology will lead to better recoveries, improved grades and lower penalties
- Silver credits currently offset As and Sb penalties which are expected to decrease as the mine deepens

Operating costs guidance

- Guidance during H1-2016 ramp-up US$1.90-$2.00/lb (total cash cost)
- Actual consumption units and costs are largely as expected
- 60-70% of costs incurred in Euros
- Currency (€/US$) devalued from NI 43-101*
- Q2 ramp-up of Expansion phase - costs will stabilize as plant nears steady-state production

 See slide 29*

Expansion Project progress

Moving from 5.0Mtpa to 9.5Mtpa throughput

- Engineering and procurement 100% completed
- Construction 100% completed
 - ✓ installation of new mills and flotation cells completed
 - ✓ commissioning started
 - ✓ full production throughput of 9.5Mtpa to be achieved during Q3 2016
- Fast track development has confirmed significant savings by:
 - ✓ delivering ahead of plan and under budget
 - ✓ €10-15 million estimated capex savings
 - ✓ latest estimate of total CAPEX expected to be US$145-150M

Expansion Project progress

4 months earlier than anticipated

Capex reduction

Phase 1 (5.0Mtpa)

Capex (incurred)	US$82 Million
Cu production	25,000 tpa
Capital intensity	US$3,280 tpa Cu

Phase 1 + Expansion (9.5Mtpa)

Capex (estimated)*	US$145-150 Million
Cu production	40,000 Tpa
Capital intensity	US$ 4,000 tpa Cu

- NI 43-101 anticipated direct field capex for Phase 1 of US$199 million plus additional US$100 million of required capital
- Direct field savings of US$117 million for Phase 1 were achieved through:
 - ✓ refurbishment of existing infrastructure
 - ✓ currency devaluation
 - ✓ deferral/reduction of costs related to tailings and water treatment
 - ✓ additional global capex savings from reduction/elimination of bonds, lower owner costs, grants etc.

Ongoing drilling

- Infill drilling to increase open pit reserves and extend LOM complete
 - ✓ 31,701 metres drilled since 2014
- Focus now on completion of assays, updating block model and expansion of mineralized zones
- Improved understanding of orebody = better modelling and mine planning to manage impurity levels
- Certification of updated reserves and resources by independent third party ongoing

Planned exploration

- Limited exploration to date on lateral extensions to Cerro Colorado as main focus has been on confirmation of open pit potential
 - ✓ 11,949 metres drilled (DDH) in 2015
- Exploration programme will be increased once steady state production achieved
- Current focus on potential of San Dionisio/Alfredo + Filón Sur stockwork

Looking ahead

Notes to Astor Management

The condition relating to the Permit Approval has been satisfied. However, the Group has not entered into arrangements in connection with a Senior Debt Facility and as the restart of the Rio Tinto Project was funded solely through an equity fundraising, the Company's legal advisors are of the opinion that there is significant doubt concerning the legal obligation on the Company to pay the Deferred Consideration.
